If you fail to vote, you endorse the Fugitive Slave Law.

If you fail to vote, you fail to give meral support to the Republican members of Congress, who were elected by your votes, last fall.

If you fail to vote, you virtually aid in continuing the burden of taxation, which is gringing this State in the dust. Remember that the issue between the Republican and Democratic parties, is fairly and fully made: extension of slave. ry, on the one hand and its limitation on the other. There is no longer a doubt on this subject. Read the following from the Ironton Times, a full blooded Democratic paper, of Southern Ohio, speaking of the doughfaced Shannon's avowed slavery sentiment.

"Does not the heart of every true Democrat in the State of Ohio sink within him to hear this dastardly man, Wilson Shannon, proclaim his avidity to execute the decrees of the infamous gang of "Missouri Regulators" that has control of affairs in Kansas. This manifesto of Governor Shannon, will loo e the Democratic cause thousands of votes at the coming election in this State.
